THE STYLE IN ONE PAGE

Five rules every post follows

1

Every headline is a hook

Write it so people want to know the answer. "Why we swapped the office for the Waitākere Ranges." "Every family has one backyard cricket injury." "The one thing we pack before every big walk."

2

Green, lime and white. Navy only for Joints.

No red or orange on social. Those colours stay on the packaging. A lime highlighter picks out the key words.

3

Keep it light

Mix white and lime backgrounds with photo-led pieces. Never more than one dark-green design in a row on the grid.

4

Three formats, used the same way every time

Reels: a full photo with a green fade and a "Watch" line. Stories: a full photo with a poll sticker. Posts: photo on top, colour band below.

5

Sound like Jess and Dan

Write as "we", in NZ English. No emoji, and no exclamation marks in headlines. Say "supports" and "helps", never "cures". Lab results are always "in independent lab tests".

COLOUR

Green	Lime	White	Navy

Main brand colour	Accent and highlighter	Light backgrounds	Joints pieces only

TYPE

Aa

Galano Grotesque is the licensed brand font. In Canva and on the web we use Poppins, its closest match, which is what these designs are set in.

Headlines	ExtraBold, sentence case
Labels and pills	Bold, small capitals, spaced
Body and sublines	Medium or Regular

Photos: real people outdoors in Aotearoa, in natural light. Keep headlines and stickers clear of Instagram's top and bottom bars.

REELS · COVER FRAMES · 1080 × 1920

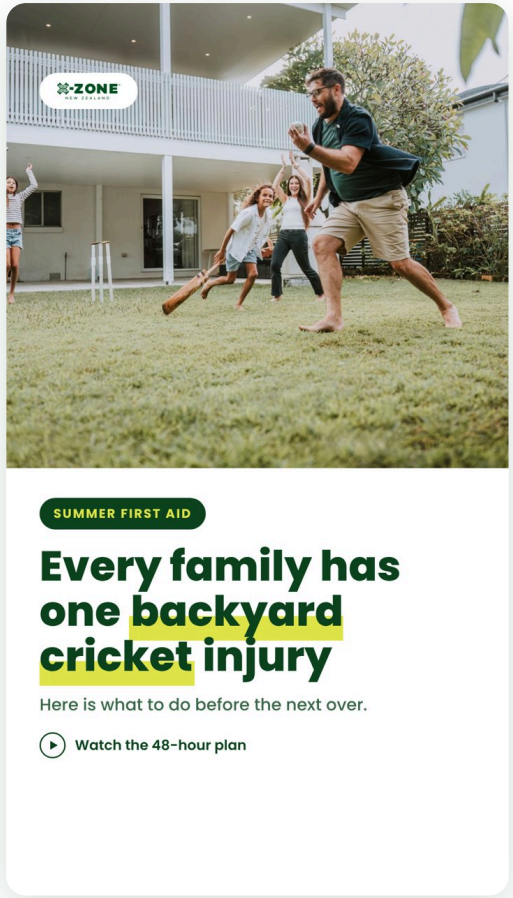

One hook per cover

Every cover gets a bold question or story line, plus a play-button line so it reads as a video even in the grid.

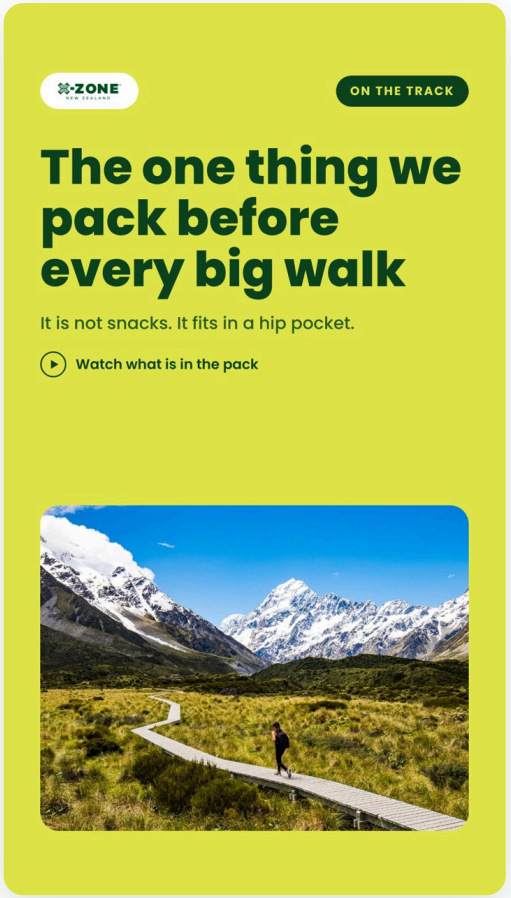

Reel A · Founders story APPROVED

Reel B · Backyard cricket NEW

Reel C · On the track NEW

Lime background with an inset photo. Good for product-in-use videos and how-tos.

STORIES · 1080 × 1920

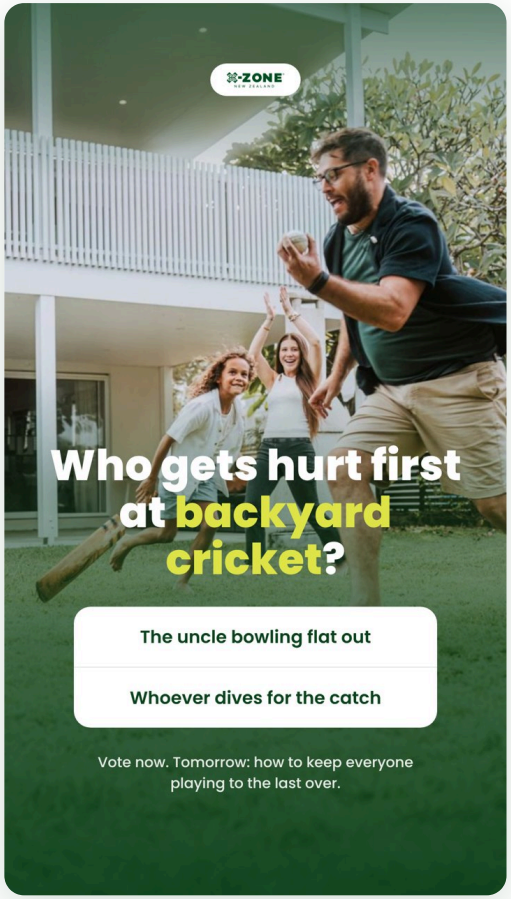

Ask a question, then teach the answer

Every story uses the Story A format: a full photo, a big question, a two-option poll and a "tomorrow we share…" line that brings people back.

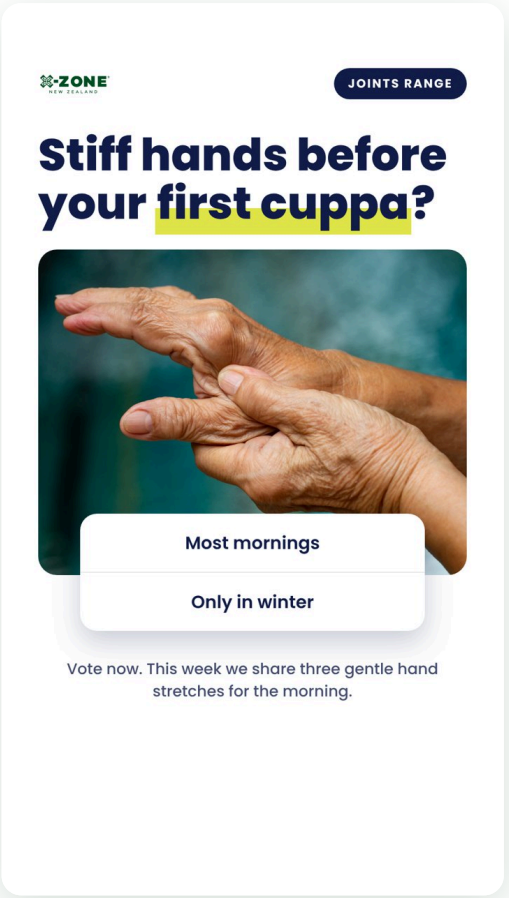

Story A · Ankle poll APPROVED

The reference story. Green fades top and bottom keep the logo and poll readable over any photo.

Story B · Cricket poll NEW

A light-hearted poll that sets up the next day's first-aid post.

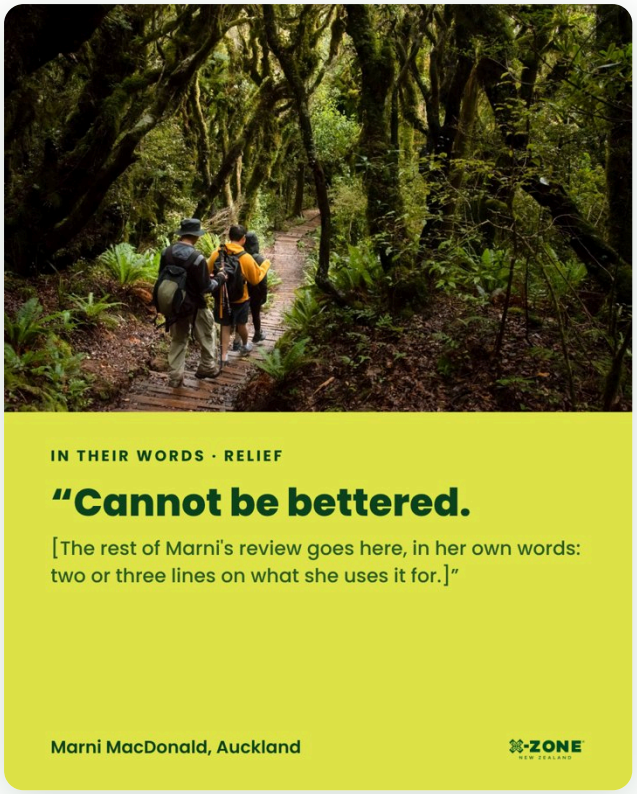

Story C · Stiff hands NEW

The white version for Joints, with navy type. Aimed at our 40-plus customers with stiff joints.

FEED POSTS · 1080 × 1350

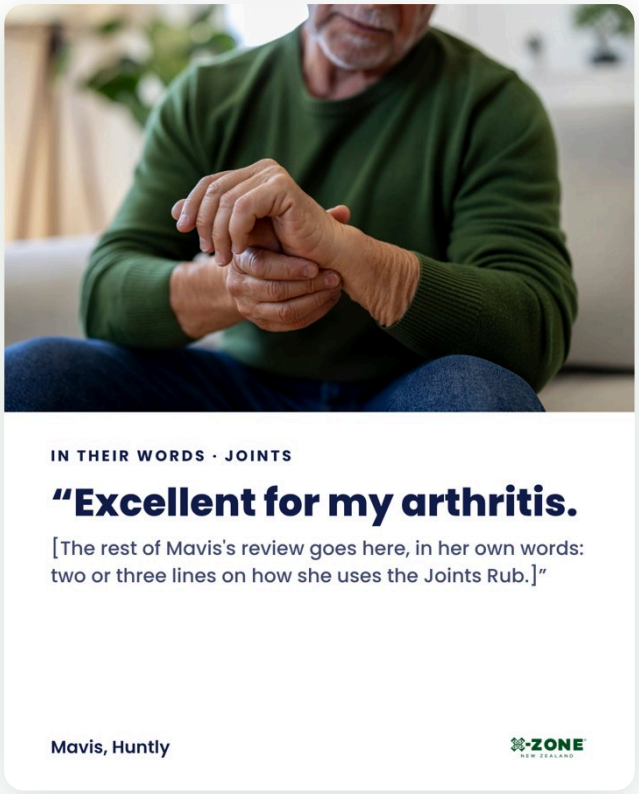

Let customers do the selling

Every single post uses the Post 1 layout: photo on top, colour band below. Lime, white and green rotate so the grid stays light.

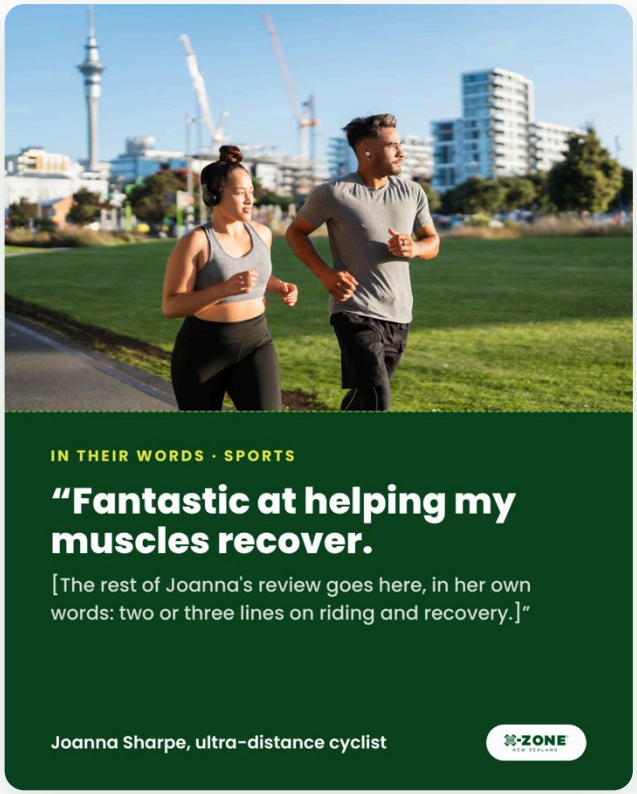

Post A · Relief review LIME

Marni MacDonald, Auckland. Space below the quote takes the rest of her review.

Post B · Joints review WHITE

Mavis, Huntly. Navy type marks it as a Joints piece.

Post C · Sports review GREEN

BEFORE ANYTHING GOES LIVE

Six things to sign off

- [ ] Approve the new photos
  The cricket, Hooker Valley track, bush walk, two hands shots and the running photo are stand-ins. The running photo is an iStock image, and the brand guidelines say no stock photography, so decide whether to license these or reshoot.

- [ ] Add the full reviews
  Posts A, B and C have space for two or three more lines from Marni, Mavis and Joanna. Copy their words exactly from the public reviews.

- [ ] Check the quotes against the public reviews
  The short quotes are from the testimonials page. Confirm each one, and which product Marni reviewed (Post A is labelled Relief).

- [ ] Mavis's quote names a condition
  "Excellent for my arthritis" is fine as her own words. Don't add any claim that the rub treats arthritis.

- [ ] Confirm the Reel C story
  "The one thing we pack before every big walk" assumes Jess and Dan carry a roll-on when they walk.

- [ ] Final artwork font
  These designs are set in Poppins. Where Galano Grotesque is licensed, use it for final artwork. In Canva, stay with Poppins.
